

The summary of Declaration of Higher Education for sustainable better livelihood (HESBL)

- Intro

1. Education serves as a powerful tool for moving nations, communities, and households toward a more sustainable future
2. Centre of higher education (constituents) and NGOs have important role to play in Higher Education.

- Four major focus of HESBL

1. Affordable and quality accessibility of formal education to youth.
2. Restructuring the existing system of education to enable more people to come.
3. Develop and spread mass awareness for the importance of Higher Education.
4. Initiating efforts to bring more people to come forward from the society and work as cohesive force i.e. community help

- Action portfolio

1. To create community help centre for advocating HESBL
2. To develop innovative ways of collaborating among other constituents of the society for effective results.
3. To focus on both formal and non formal education of youth without sex discrimination
4. To facilitate communication and platform in all levels.
5. To appoint and expand Regional Sub chapters
6. To voice against commercialization of education institutes

- Major factor affecting Higher education

1. • good legislation and governance
2. • economic incentives
3. • overcoming corruption
4. • environmental protection
5. • human rights and security
6. • creating infrastructure—from transportation to financial pillars
7. • Social culture
8. • Present scenario

- The core missions of higher education [are] to

1. • Provide free flow of knowledge
2. • Provide strong base for livelihood
3. • Provide cultural strength
4. • Provide base to build nation of well educated people

- Higher Education builds capacity in civil society and directly affects in these area

1. Workforce
2. Outward migration of Human brain
3. Community-based decision making
4. Quality of life

- Ultimate Goals of HESBL

1. Improve access to quality basic and higher education to underprivileged youth
2. Reorient existing education to address wide goal to attain better livelihood,
3. Develop public understanding and awareness, and

4. Provide training programs and youth participation for all sectors of the economy.

● EDUCATION CHARTER ●