A Statement of Vision, Values and Guiding Principles for CCLP worldwide

Vision

A world in which Higher Education is accessible and available to all gender, caste, creed, age ,race and Society at large.

Our values

1. Equality stands for Education for every one
2. Accountability stands for responsibility of Government for education
3. Integrity stands for the cohesive force for igniting the movement
4. Solidarity stands for fellowship arising from common responsibilities and interests
5. Courage stands for brave face of society to promote the education for every one
6. Justice stands for rights of every citizen to receive proper education

Our guiding principles

We are a civil Trust organization committed to respecting the following principles:

1. As coalition builders, we will work cooperatively with all individuals and groups, with for profit and not for profit organizations, and with governments and international bodies committed to the fight against inaccessibility of quality education, subject only to the policies and priorities set by our governing bodies. We undertake to be open, honest and accountable in our relationships with everyone we work with and with each other.
2. We will be democratic, non-religious, politically non partisan and non sectarian in our work.
3. We will condemn acting of educational institute as profit making entity.
4. The positions we take will be based on sound, objective and professional analysis and high standards of research.
5. We will only accept funding that does not compromise our ability to address issues freely, thoroughly and objectively.
