

*(On the letterhead of Ambassadorial appointees if send by post)
Make sure to add the logo of education charter and CCLP worldwide with your mail*

*To
The addressee,*

Respected Sir,

Warm greeting for New Year. Or what you think fit

We would like to invite you to endorse the Education Charter International of our organization-Global Civil Society CCLP Worldwide.

As an introduction the Global Civil Society is engaged in supporting the universal declaration of UN Global Compact & UNESCO and promoting the Education Charter International worldwide.

The Education Charter International has been endorsed and supported by thousand of endorsers including the Government, inter- government, non government organization, Educational Institutes, noted social activist, international diplomats, Scholars and general people at large.

The Global Civil society has representative all around the world known as Hony. Ambassador, CCLP Worldwide to support the worldwide promotion of Education Charter.

We understand that your esteemed University is regarded as one of the best educational institution in the World.(or USP of that university or institute or person as profession)

Provision of the scholarship for higher education to the needy students coming from all corner of the world is really encouraging and setting example for others to follow. (Any special service towards higher education)

This esteemed university of international repute would send strong signal to the world community towards the need of providing higher education for underprivileged youth at reasonable or no cost.

Your endorsement to the charter will bring positive changes in the circle of academia towards moral responsibility for education to all.

It is really an honour for me as official emissary of CCLP worldwide to send invitation to your esteemed University to endorse the charter.

Our humble invitation to endorse the charter and join us to stand for Education worldwide is presented to you for your kind consideration.

I am enclosing a copy of charter for your goodself.

More information about us may be found at www.cclpworldwide.com/esi

Cordially,

Ambassadorial appointee

*His Excellency, Ambassador At Large of International Council (or your position)
CCLP Worldwide*

#(An official copy of invitation with the seal of Organization is being sent to your postal address) if you use the email route please mention this

#Please as per published protocol guidelines of CCLP worldwide the honorific word "His Excellency" may be used by Governors and Ambassador At Large

#Country and City appointees may use the honorific word "Hony."

#don't forget to enclose the education charter International